10 O'CLOCK ROCK

I hope that you are all doing well and are managing to enjoy the sunshine. This week I've created a short film for you to watch with your family. It tells the story of two men who were walking on Easter Sunday and meet Jesus on the road.
I made this film by doing some drawings and cutting them out. Then my brothers and I narrated the story. Can you retell this story? You could act it out, narrate it, draw it or even do a puppet show! Whatever you end up creating I'd love for you to share with the other 10 o'clock rockers in our group chat.

Best Wishes,
Daisy
